

FIRST PUBLIC CONSULTATION ON BURDEROP PARK, FEBRUARY 2016

City & Country understands and fully appreciates the importance of Burderop Park in terms of its historical context and the long standing and close relationship it has with the local community.

As part of our series of community consultation events, we will also be regularly updating our website in order to keep you informed of the progress being made towards submitting a Planning Application.

We are determined to create a vision for Burderop Park, which will deliver an award winning, sensitively designed, carefully constructed, high quality development which will secure the long term future of the historic assets.

1. Have you visited the site before?

Yes
No

If yes, when?

2. As part of our social and cultural heritage would you support the conservation and restoration of Burderop Park for the benefit of current and future generations?

Yes
No
Don't know

3. What part of the buildings, landscape and setting do you think are crucial to be conserved or enhanced in any development?

How important would you rate the following factors in the redevelopment and conservation:

4a. To provide a long-term and viable use for the buildings to ensure the historic buildings are preserved for future generations. Please select:

- Not important
- Of some importance
- Important
- Very important
- Essential

4b. To secure a new future for Burderop Park, in order that the site has a viable use once the existing occupier (CH2M Hill) relocates, to prevent vandalism, theft and other damage that can occur during any prolonged period without a use. Please select:

- Not important
- Of some importance
- Important
- Very important
- Essential

5. Do you have any further comments?
