Apartment C01

An elegant light-filled chapel apartment with beautiful views onto the landscaped gardens

Arranged over three floors, this beautiful apartment within the impeccably restored original chapel offers spectacular views over the landscaped gardens and arboretum. The large and light-filled living room features sensitively restored stained glass windows and exquisite decorative detailing to its high ceiling. A bright open plan kitchen includes a large island with seating area and pendant feature lighting whilst the dining area provides views out towards the West End. Relax in the grand entrance hall, or set up your home office, watching the ever changing light patterns from the stained glass windows wander throughout the space.

The spacious master bedroom features a separate bathroom, en suite shower room and dressing area with fitted wardrobes. The second bedroom benefits from a luxurious wet room within the historic turret.
